DO CAMPO DE BORJA

The region

- DO Campo De Borja is located in Aragon just south-east of Navarra.
- Known as the Empire of Garnacha.
- Winegrowing tradition dating back to 12th Century.
- High proportion of old vines.
- Continental climate with cool, dry “Cierzo” winds in the winter and Mediterranean influences in the summer.
- Extreme climate and contrast between daytime and night-time temperatures help to produce wines with good acidity, intense colour and pleasing tannins.

CHISPAS

DO CAMPO DE BORJA

Blanco

- A blend of Macabeo and Chardonnay.
- A brilliant pale straw coloured wine with greenish tinges and a crystalline aspect.
- Fresh and clean hints of lemon, pineapple and nectarine.
- A long crisp citrusy finish with well-integrated acidity.

Awards

- Gold – Asia Wine Trophy - 2018

Rosado

- 100% Garnacha.
- Vivid pink, with a crystalline aspect.
- Fruity aromas typical of the Garnacha grape variety, evoking wild berries, strawberries and raspberries, with subtle floral notes.
- Full-bodied and rounded with a crisp and lingering finish.

DO CAMPO DE BORJA

Tinto

- A blend of Garnacha and Syrah.
- Deep red colour with violet highlights.
- Intense aroma of ripe fruit, especially blackberries and cherries.
- Delightfully balanced, refreshing and fruity and very easy to drink.

Awards

- Gold – Gilbert & Gaillard International Challenge 2020

CHISPAS

DO CAMPO DE BORJA

Where it comes from

- 3,700 hectares of vineyards on distinctive rusty-red stony ferrous soil around 500 metres.
- Situated on gentle slopes with good sun exposure just below the Moncayo mountain.
- Generally low-yielding vines producing wines of structural and aromatic complexity.

DO CAMPO DE BORJA

Where it is made

- Chispas is made for Long Wines at one of the area's leading wineries, particularly well-known for its excellent Garnachas.
- Established in 1984, it has recently restructured many of its vineyards and preserved many of the more ancient vineyards.
- It is now run by a young “go-ahead” and flexible team that understands the needs of global markets
- Combining quality, tradition, modern know-how and value.
