The region

- Rioja is the longest-standing and most famous of Spain's wine regions; a must in any wine importer's portfolio.
- The region is one of only two in Spain with "Qualified" status, which means the wines must undergo stringent testing and tasting before release.
- Finca Mónica comes from the eastern-most part of the region, the more Mediterranean part of the three sub-zones, ensuring fully ripe, fruit-forward wines without sacrificing the elegance for which the region is renowned.
